STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF)

DISCLOSURE

A qualifying institution shall include the following statement on both its enrollment agreement and school catalog:

“The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss.

Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF) FEE

“You must pay the state-imposed Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) assessment if you are a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and you prepay all or part of your tuition. Definition of “As New”

“As new” means the item is unused, unopened (if applicable), in its original packaging, and in the same condition in which it was issued to the student. Items that show any sign of use, wear, damage, writing, stains, missing packaging, or removal of protective wrapping are not considered ‘as new’ and are non-returnable and non-refundable.
